

MARUGAME UDON
JAPANESE NOODLES & TEMPURA

Why join Marugame

Pronounced MA-RU-GA-MAY, Marugame is part of the Toridoll Group in Japan and is a well-known brand with more than 1200 Marugame Udon around the world. The London Liverpool Street site which opened on July 2021 is the first Marugame in the UK and in Europe! With 3 additional openings in London before the end of the year and more than 8 new openings planned for 2022, Marugame is the latest trending food business in London!

What do we do ?

We provide amazing quality udon noodles crafted accordingly to the Sanuki style. Our wonderful udon master Ko-san which came all the way down from Japan is making sure we bring the authentic taste of udon to the European customers.

How do we do ?

'It's a bit Wagamama meets Ikea cafe' that's the word used by the famous Guardian restaurant critic Grace Dent to describe Marugame Udon. Indeed, because we want to provide nourishment for all, Marugame's mission is to offer fresh and tasty udon at a fast pace and for an affordable price. All this taking place in our lively kitchen with sustainability in mind because we believe that's the right thing to do : good food for the soul, the body and the planet.

What to expect from us ?

Omotenashi is a Japanese word which describes the specific sense of hospitality Japan is well-known for. We do believe in the importance of showing a little subtle thoughtfulness to our customers and our staff while committing to provide high quality udon, throughout the day, every single day. Therefore, by joining Marugame, you won't only join a company but first a family. On top of our competitive salary and various benefits, we want your place of work to be fun and friendly : a place where you will come with a smile everyday while continuously learning new things.

1. Commit to earnest udon

2. Show a little subtle thoughtfulness

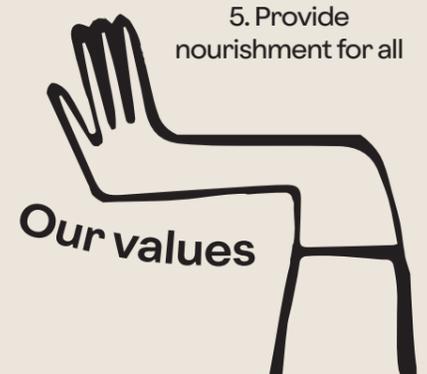

3. Create a lively kitchen

4. Do the right thing

5. Provide nourishment for all
